5 Wellcome, Inc., and SmithKline Beecham, Inc.

6 23. At all times material hereto, the Defendant, McKesson, was a corporation organized,
7 existing and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware, with its 8 principal place of business in San Francisco, California. McKesson is, and at all times material to

18 employment with the knowledge, consent, ratification, and authorization of the Defendant and its 19 directors, officers and/or managing agents.

20 26. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant McKesson packaged, distributed,
21 supplied, sold, placed into the stream of commerce, labeled, described, marketed, advertised,
22 promoted, and purported to warn or to inform users regarding the risks pertaining to, and assuaged
23 concerns about the pharmaceutical Avandia.

BACKGROUND
STATEMENT OF THE CASE

27. Type 2 diabetes is the most common form of diabetes, afflicting 18 million Americans and 200 million people worldwide. This form of diabetes occurs when the body does not make enough insulin (a hormone needed to convert sugar and other food into energy) or cannot effectively use what it manages to produce.

28. Avandia, created and marketed by GSK, is designed to treat persons with Type 2 diabetes by helping sensitize cells to insulin, thereby greatly assisting in blood-sugar control. It also is combined with metformin and sold as Advandamet. Only one other drug like it, pioglitazone, sold as Actos and Actoplus, made by Takeda Pharmaceuticals, is sold in the United States. In 2006, Avandia represented 37% of the U.S. market for oral diabetes treatments. Thus, the U.S. market for such drugs is huge, and Avandia faces only one competitor for that market.

29. Avandia had a total U.S. sales of $2.2 billion in 2006, slightly less than the $2.6 billion in total U.S. sales for Actos, according to IMS Health, a healthcare information company. Approximately 13 million Avandia prescriptions were filled in the U.S. last year, with a one-month supply of Avandia selling for between $90 and $170. Avandia is critical to GSK, being the company's second largest selling drug after Advair (an asthma medication).

30. GSK's product Avandia can cause heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-overload disease, liver damage, liver failure, stroke and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac arrest and death. In 2005, GSK performed an overview analysis of multiple Avandia trials, referred to as a "meta-analysis", and shared the preliminary results with the Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") in September 2005. Almost one year later, in August 2006, a more complete version of the meta-analysis was provided to the FDA. The results of GSK's analysis showed that patients

1 taking Avandia had a 31% higher risk of adverse cardiovascular events such as heart attack due to
2 obstruction of blood flow.

3 31. GSK's Avandia can cause heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-overload
4 disease, liver damage, liver failure, stroke, and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac arrest
5 and death. Not only was GSK aware of the dangers posed by Avandia, but data from these studies
6 continued to be made available to GSK. On May 21, 2007, Dr. Steven E. Nissen, a prominent 7 cardiologist associated with the Cleveland Clinic, published a study in the New England Journal of 8 Medicine of his analysis of 42 studies comprising of approximately 28,000 people who took 9 Avandia. These were on-line databases of GSK studies that were available on the Internet. Dr.
10 Nissen's meta-analysis revealed a 43% higher risk of heart attack for those taking Avandia
11 compared to people taking other diabetes drugs or no diabetes medication, and people taking 12 Avandia suffered such adverse events at a rate of 1.99%, as opposed to 1.51% for other patients.
13 Further, Dr. Nissen's analysis showed a 64% elevated risk of death from cardiovascular disease.

14 32. Despite GSK's longstanding knowledge of these dangers, Avandia's label only 15 warns about possible heart failure and other heart problems when taken with insulin. GSK failed to 16 adequately warn and disclose to consumers that Avandia significantly increased the risk of adverse 17 cardiovascular events. Furthermore, the proper and effective use of Avandia by Plaintiffs was 18 impaired due to GSK's failure to adequately warn of Avandia's defects and GSK's failure to 19 properly and adequately set forth such warnings in Avandia's drug labeling.

20 33. GSK knew of these dangerous defects in Avandia from the many trials which it
21 performed and to which it had access and from its own analysis of these studies, but took no action
22 to adequately warn or remedy the defects, but instead concealed, suppressed and failed to disclose

1 these dangers. Even in the face of Dr. Nissen's study, GSK continues to fail to warn of these 2 dangers through revised drug labeling.

3 34. Not only has GSK failed to disclose in its labeling or advertising that Avandia is 4 actually dangerous for diabetics, GSK has represented and has continued to represent that they
5 manufacture and/or sell safe and dependable pharmaceuticals with safety as their first concern:

6 Like all innovative pharmaceutical companies, we carry out a series of clinical trials to test
7 each investigational drug for the potential to become a new medicine.

8 ***

9
10 Phase I trials typically involve health volunteers. These trials study the safety of the drug
11 and its interaction with the body, for example, its concentration and duration in the blood following 12 various doses, and begin to answer such questions as whether the drug inhibits or amplifies the 13 effects of other medicines that might be taken at the same time.

14
15 Phase II studies enroll patients with the illness an investigational drug is designed to treat.
16 These trials evaluate whether the drug shows favorable effects in treating an illness and seek to 17 determine the proper dose. They provide an opportunity to explore the therapeutic potential of the 18 drug in what may be quite different illnesses. The evaluation of safety continues.

19
20 If Phase II results have been encouraging, Phase III trials, the largest part of a clinical-
21 development program, go forward. Phase III trials are designed to provide the substantial evidence
22 of efficacy and safety required, in addition to data from earlier-phase trials, before regulatory 23 agencies will approve the investigational drug as a medicine and allow it to be marketed.

24
25 <http://www.gsk.com/research/clinical/index/html> (emphasis supplied).

26
27 35. GSK has also strongly touted their commitment to improving the quality of life: "We 28 have a challenging and inspiring mission: to improve the quality of human life by enabling people 29 to do more, feel better and live longer." <http://www.gsk.com/about/index.htm>.

30 36. On May 21, 2007, the FDA issued a Safety Alert on Avandia showing that there is a
31 potentially significant risk of heart attack and heart-related deaths in patients taking Avandia.

32 37. Based on these representations, upon which both Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' prescribing
33 physicians relied, including the omission from the Avandia labeling of the danger of increased risk

1 of adverse cardiovascular events as a result of ingesting Avandia, Plaintiffs purchased and ingested
2 Avandia believing that the drug would be safe and effective.

3 38. In fact, however, Avandia poses significant safety risks due to defects in its chemical 4 design and inadequate labeling.

5 39. To date, GSK has failed to adequately warn or inform consumers, such as Plaintiffs
6 or Plaintiffs' prescribing physicians, of the known defects in Avandia that can lead to increased
7 risks of cardiovascular events, including but not limited to heart injury, excessive fluid retention,
8 fluid-overload disease, liver damage, liver failure, stroke and severe injury to the heart leading to 9 cardiac arrest, and death.

10 40. As a result of GSK's omissions and/or misrepresentations, Plaintiffs ingested
11 Avandia, and have suffered heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-overload disease, liver
12 damage, liver failure, stroke, and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac arrest and sustained
13 physical and financial damages including pain and suffering.

14 COUNT I
15 NEGLIGENCE

16 (Against Defendants GSK and McKesson)

17 41. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

18 42. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendants were under a duty to exercise
19 reasonable care in the design manufacture, testing processing, marketing advertising, labeling,
20 packaging distribution, and sale of Avandia, and Defendants knew or should have known that 21 Avandia was not safe and that the user could sustain injuries and harm from the drug.

22 43. That Defendants GSK and McKesson negligently, recklessly, grossly negligently,
23 wantonly and willfully displayed a morally culpable and conscious disregard of the rights of others
24 in that they failed to exercise reasonable care and failed to fulfill the above-stated duty by the 25

1 manner that Defendants, directly and indirectly, advertised, marketed and promoted Avandia for the 2 treatment of diabetes, even though Avandia, in fact, was not reasonably safe for such use, and
3 furthermore, Defendants failed to adequately warn of the increased risk of serious cardiovascular
4 events which Defendants knew or should have known about.

5 44. That Defendants GSK and McKesson negligently, recklessly, grossly negligently,
6 wantonly and willfully displayed a morally culpable and conscious disregard of the rights of others
7 by manufacturing, distributing, selling, advertising, marketing and promoting Avandia even though
8 such drug was not safe or effective for any purpose because it caused serious cardiovascular events
9 and by failing to adequately warn the trusting public and prescribing health care providers of the 10 true, complete, and accurate risk and the lack of efficacy of Avandia.

11 45. The aforesaid incident and the injuries sustained by Plaintiffs were caused by or 12 were contributed to by the negligence, recklessness, gross negligence, wantonness, willfulness, and 13 conscious and callous disregard of the safety of the public, including Plaintiffs, on the part of 14 Defendants in the design, manufacture, distribution, advertising, marketing and promoting of 15 Avandia as being safe and effective in the treatment of diabetes, and by inducing the public,
16 including Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' prescribing physicians, to believe that Avandia was effective in 17 the treatment of the causes and symptoms of diabetes.

18 46. Defendants GSK and McKesson failed to exercise reasonable care in the design,
19 manufacture, testing, processing, marketing, advertising, labeling, packaging, rebranding,
20 distribution and/or sale of Avandia in one or more of the following respects:

- 21 a. Designing, marketing, processing, advertising, packaging, distributing and/or selling a 22 product that defendants knew, or should have known, carried the risk of serious; life-
23 threatening side effects;
24
25 b. Failure to adequately test the product prior to placing the drug Avandia on the market;
26

- c. Failure to use care in designing, developing and manufacturing their product so as to avoid posing unnecessary health risks to users of such product;
- d. Failure to conduct adequate pre-clinical testing and post-marketing surveillance to determine the safety of Avandia;
- e. Failure to advise consumers, such as Plaintiffs, that consumption of Avandia could result in severe and disabling side effects, including but not limited to heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-overload disease, liver damage, liver failure and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac arrest and death.
- f. Failure to advise the medical and scientific communities of the potential for severe and disabling side effects, including but not limited to heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-overload disease, liver damage, liver failure, and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac arrest, and death.
- g. Failure to provide timely and/or adequate warnings about the potential health risks associated with the use of Avandia; and
- h. Any and all other acts of negligence with respect to Avandia which may be shown at trial.

47. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, upon information and belief, the above-described culpable conduct by Defendants GSK and McKesson was a proximate cause of injuries sustained by Plaintiffs.

48. That as a result of the aforesaid occurrence, the injuries sustained by Plaintiffs resulting therefrom, Plaintiffs suffered extensive monetary and pecuniary losses and other compensatory damages were also incurred and paid out including necessary medical, hospital, and concomitant expenses. In addition, Plaintiffs were deprived of a chance for safe and effective and/or successful treatment.

49. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiffs sustained damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would have jurisdiction of this matter, and in addition, Plaintiffs seek punitive and exemplary damages against Defendants in an amount to be determined upon the trial of this matter.

1 and fully reflecting the symptoms, scope and severity should have been made to medical care
2 providers, the FDA and the public, including Plaintiffs.

3 56. At all relevant times, Avandia, which was researched, developed, designed, tested,
4 manufactured, inspected, labeled, distributed, marketed, promoted, sold, and otherwise released into
5 the stream of commerce by Defendants, was defective due to inadequate post-marketing warning
6 and/or instruction because, after Defendants knew or should have known of the risk of serious and
7 potentially life-threatening side effects and complications from the use of Avandia, Defendants
8 failed to provide adequate warnings to medical care providers, the FDA and the consuming public,
9 including Plaintiffs, and continued to promote Avandia aggressively.

10 57. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' carelessness and negligence, the 11 Plaintiffs suffered severe and permanent physical injuries. The Plaintiffs have endured substantial
12 pain and suffering and have undergone extensive medical and surgical procedures. Plaintiffs have
13 incurred significant expenses for medical care and treatment, and will continue to incur such 14 expenses in the future. Plaintiffs have lost past earnings and have suffered a loss of earning 15 capacity. The Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer economic loss, and have
16 otherwise been physically, emotionally and economically injured. The Plaintiffs' injuries and
17 damages are permanent and will continue into the future. The Plaintiffs seek actual and punitive
18 damages from the Defendants as alleged herein.

19 58. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants for compensatory,
20 treble, and punitive damages, together with interest, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and all such other
21 relief as the Court deems proper.

22 COUNT III
23 NEGLIGENCE PER SE
24 (Against Defendants GSK and McKesson)
25

1           59. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

2           60. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants GSK and McKesson had an obligation not
3 to violate the law, in the manufacture, design, formulation, compounding, testing, production,
4 processing, assembling, inspection, research, distribution, marketing, labeling, packaging
5 preparation for use, sale and warning of the risks and dangers of the aforementioned product.

6           61. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants violated the Federal Food, Drug and 7 Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. Section 301 et seq., related amendments and codes and federal regulations
8 provided thereunder, and other applicable laws, statutes and regulations.

9           62. Plaintiffs, as purchasers and consumers of the product, are within the class of 10 persons the statutes and regulations described above are designed to protect, and the injuries alleged 11 herein are the type of harm these statutes are designed to prevent.

12           63. Defendants' acts constitute an adulteration and/or misunderstanding as defined by 13 the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetics Act, 21 U.S.C. § 331, and constitutes a breach of duty
14 subjecting Defendants to civil liability for all damages arising therefrom, under theories of 15 negligence per se.

16           64. Defendants failed to meet the standard of care set by the applicable statutes and 17 regulations, which were intended for the benefit of individuals such as Plaintiffs, making
18 Defendants negligent per se: (a) the labeling lacked adequate information on the use of the drug
19 Avandia; (b) the labeling failed to provide adequate warnings of severe and disabling medical 20 conditions as soon as there was reasonable evidence of their association with the drug; (c) there was 21 inadequate information for patients for the safe and effective use of Defendants' drug; (d) there was 22 inadequate information regarding special care to be exercised by the doctor for safe and effective
23 use of Defendants' drug; and (e) the labeling was misleading and promotional.

66. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants for compensatory, treble, and punitive damages, together with interest, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and all such other relief as the Court deems proper.

COUNT IV
NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION
(Against Defendants GSK and McKesson)

67. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

68. Defendants GSK and McKesson, in addition to knowing misrepresentations, made misrepresentations without any reasonable grounds for believing its statements to be true to Plaintiffs, other patients, and the medical community.

69. Defendants GSK and McKesson, through their misrepresentations, intended to induce justifiable reliance by Plaintiffs, other patients, and the medical community.

70. Defendants GSK and McKesson, through their marketing campaign and communications with treating physicians, were in a relationship so close to that of Plaintiffs and other patients that it approaches and resembles privity.

5 79. At all relevant times Avandia did not perform as safely as an ordinary consumer
6 would expect, when used as intended or in a reasonably foreseeable manner.

7 80. Plaintiffs, other consumers, and the medical community relied upon Defendants'
8 express warranties.

9 81. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' breach of express warranty, the
10 Plaintiffs suffered severe and permanent physical injuries. The Plaintiffs have endured substantial

15 otherwise been physically, emotionally, and economically injured. The Plaintiffs' injuries and
16 damages are permanent and will continue into the future. The Plaintiffs seek actual and punitive
17 damages from the Defendants as alleged herein.

18 82. Defendants' conduct as described above was committed with knowing, conscious, 19 wanton, willful, and deliberate disregard for the value of human life and the rights and safety of 20 consumers such as Plaintiffs, thereby entitling Plaintiffs to punitive damages so as to punish them
21 and deter it from similar conduct in the future.

10 COUNT VII
11 STRICT PRODUCTS LIABILITY – DEFECTIVE DESIGN
12 (Against Defendants GSK and McKesson)
13

14 93. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

15 94. At all times material to this action, the Defendants were responsible for designing,
16 developing, manufacturing, testing, packaging, promoting, marketing, distributing, labeling, and/or 17 selling Avandia.

18 95. The subject product is defective and unreasonably dangerous to consumers.

19 96. Avandia is defective in its design or formulation in that it is not reasonably fit, 20 suitable, or safe for its intended purpose and/or its foreseeable risks exceed the benefits associated 21 with its design and formulation.

22 97. At all times material to this action, Avandia was expected to reach, and did reach,
23 consumers in this jurisdiction and through the United States, including the Plaintiffs herein, without 24 substantial change in the condition in which it was sold.

1           98. At all times material to this action, Avandia was designed, developed, manufactured,
2 tested, packaged, promoted, marketed, distributed, labeled, and/or sold by Defendants in a defective
3 and unreasonably dangerous condition at the time it was placed in the stream of commerce in ways
4 which include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following particulars:

5           a. When placed in the stream of commerce, Avandia contained unreasonably dangerous
6 design defects and was not reasonably safe as intended to be used, subjecting the Plaintiffs to risks
7 that exceeded the benefits of the subject product, including but not limited to the risks of developing 8 heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-overload disease, liver damage, liver failure, stroke and 9 severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac arrest and death and other serious injuries and side
10 effects in an unacceptably high number of its users;

11           b. When placed in the stream of commerce, Avandia was defective in design and 12 formulation, making the use of Avandia more dangerous than an ordinary consumer would expect,
13 and more dangerous than other risks associated with the other medications and similar drugs on the 14 market for the treatment of diabetes;

15           c. The subject product's design defects existed before it left the control of the Defendants;

16           d. Avandia was insufficiently tested;

17           e. Avandia caused harmful side effects that outweighed any potential utility; and

18           f. Avandia was not accompanied by adequate instructions and/or warnings to fully apprise
19 consumers, including the Plaintiffs herein, of the full nature and extent of the risks and side effects
20 associated with its use, thereby rendering Defendants liable to Plaintiffs, individually and 21 collectively.

22           99. In addition, at the time the subject product left the control of the Defendants, there
23 were practical and feasible alternative designs that would have prevented and/or significantly

1 reduced the risk of Plaintiffs' injuries without impairing the reasonably anticipated or intended
2 function of the product. These safer alternative designs were economically and technologically
3 feasible, and would have prevented or significantly reduced the risk of Plaintiffs' injuries without 4 substantially impairing the product's utility.

5 100. As a direct and proximate result of the subject product's defective design, the
6 Plaintiffs suffered severe and permanent physical injuries. The Plaintiffs have endured substantial
7 pain and suffering and have undergone extensive medical and surgical procedures. Plaintiffs have
8 incurred significant expenses for medical care and treatment, and will continue to incur such
9 expenses in the future. The Plaintiffs have lost past earnings and have suffered a loss of earning
10 capacity. The Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer economic loss, and have
11 otherwise been physically, emotionally and economically injured. The Plaintiffs' injuries and
12 damages are permanent and will continue into the future. The Plaintiffs seek actual and punitive
13 damages from the Defendants as alleged herein.

14 101. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants for compensatory,
15 treble, and punitive damages, together with interest, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and all such other
16 relief as the Court deems proper.

17 COUNT VIII
18 STRICT PRODUCTS LIABILITY – MANUFACTURING AND DESIGN DEFECT
19 (Against Defendants GSK and McKesson)
20

21 102. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

22 103. At all times material to this action, Defendants were engaged in the business of 23 designing, developing, manufacturing, testing, packaging, promoting, marketing, distributing,
24 labeling, and/or selling Avandia.

1           104. At all times material to this action, Avandia was expected to reach, and did reach,
2 consumers in this jurisdiction and throughout the United States, including the Plaintiffs herein
3 without substantial change in the condition in which it was sold.

4           105. At all times material to this action, Avandia was designed, developed, manufactured,
5 tested, packaged, promoted, marketed, distributed, labeled, and/or sold by Defendants in a defective
6 and unreasonably dangerous condition at the time it was placed in the stream of commerce in ways
7 which include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following particulars:

8           a. When placed in the stream of commerce, Avandia contained manufacturing defects
9 which rendered the product unreasonably dangerous;

10           b. The subject product's manufacturing defects occurred while the product was in the 11 possession and control of the Defendants;

12           c. The subject product was not made in accordance with the Defendants' specifications and 13 performance standards;

14           d. The subject product's manufacturing defects existed before it left the control of the 15 Defendants;

16           106. As a direct and proximate result of the subject product's manufacturing defects, the
17 Plaintiffs suffered severe and permanent physical injuries. The Plaintiffs have endured substantial
18 pain and suffering and have undergone extensive medical and surgical procedures. Plaintiffs have
19 incurred significant expenses for medical care and treatment, and will continue to incur such
20 expenses in the future. The Plaintiffs have lost past earnings and have suffered a loss of earning
21 capacity. The Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer economic loss, and have
22 otherwise been physically, emotionally and economically injured. The Plaintiffs' injuries and

1 damages are permanent and will continue into the future. The Plaintiffs seek actual and punitive
2 damages from the Defendants as alleged herein.

3 107. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants for compensatory,
4 treble, and punitive damages, together with interest, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and all such other
5 relief as the Court deems proper.

6 COUNT IX

7 STRICT PRODUCTS LIABILITY – FAILURE TO ADEQUATELY WARN

8 (Against Defendants GSK and McKesson)
9

10 108. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

11 109. Avandia was defective and unreasonably dangerous when it left the possession of the 12 Defendants in that it contained warnings insufficient to alert consumers, including the Plaintiffs 13 herein, of the dangerous risks and reactions associated with the subject product, including but not
14 limited to its propensity to cause heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-overload disease, liver
15 damage, liver failure, stroke and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac arrest and death and 16 other serious injuries and side effects over other forms of diabetes treatment.

17 110. The Plaintiffs were prescribed and used the subject product for its intended purpose.

18 111. The Plaintiffs could not have discovered any defect in the subject product through 19 the exercise of reasonable care.

20 112. The Defendants GSK and McKesson, as manufacturers and/or distributors of the 21 subject prescription product, are held to the level of knowledge of an expert in the field.

22 113. The warnings that were given by the Defendants GSK and McKesson were not 23 accurate, clear and/or were ambiguous.

24 114. The warnings that were given by the Defendants GSK and McKesson failed to 25 properly warn physicians of the increased risks of heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-

1 overload disease, liver damage, liver failure, stroke and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac
2 arrest and death and other serious injuries and side effects.

3 115. The warnings that were given by the Defendants GSK and McKesson failed to 4 properly warn consumers of the increased risks of heart injury, excessive fluid retention, fluid-
5 overload disease, liver damage, liver failure, stroke and severe injury to the heart leading to cardiac
6 arrest and death and other serious injuries and side effects.

7 116. The Plaintiffs, individually and through prescribing physicians, reasonably relied 8 upon the skill, superior knowledge and judgment of the Defendants.

9 117. The Defendants GSK and McKesson had a continuing duty to adequately warn the 10 Plaintiffs of the dangers associated with the subject product and of the poor efficacy of the product.

11 118. Had the Plaintiffs and/or Plaintiffs' prescribing physicians received adequate
12 warnings regarding the risks, and the lack of benefits, of the subject product, Plaintiffs would not 13 have used it.

14 119. As a proximate result of the subject product's manufacturing defects, the Plaintiffs 15 suffered severe and permanent physical injuries. The Plaintiffs have endured substantial pain and 16 suffering and have undergone extensive medical and surgical procedures. Plaintiffs have incurred 17 significant expenses for medical care and treatment, and will continue to incur such expenses in the 18 future. The Plaintiffs have lost past earnings and have suffered a loss of earning capacity. The 19 Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer economic loss, and have otherwise been 20 physically, emotionally and economically injured. The Plaintiffs' injuries and damages are 21 permanent and will continue into the future. The Plaintiffs seek actual and punitive damages from 22 the Defendants as alleged herein.

1 such product. Plaintiffs relied in part on these material misrepresentations in deciding to purchase
2 and consume Avandia to his detriment.

3 126. The damages sustained by Plaintiffs were a direct and foreseeable result of, and were 4 proximately caused by Defendants' misrepresentations, concealment and omissions.

5 127. Defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, and reckless. Based on the intentionally
6 dishonest nature of Defendants' conduct, which was directed at Plaintiffs and the public generally,
7 Defendants should also be held liable for punitive damages.

8 128. Any applicable statutes of limitation have been tolled by Defendants' knowing and 9 active concealment and denial of the facts alleged herein. Plaintiffs and other members of the 10 public who were prescribed and who ingested Avandia for the treatment of diabetes have been kept 11 in ignorance of vital information essential to the pursuit of these claims, without any fault or lack of 12 diligence on their part, and could not reasonably have discovered the fraudulent nature of 13 Defendants' conduct, and information and documents concerning the safety and efficacy of 14 Avandia. Furthermore, due to the aforesaid allegations, Plaintiffs may rely on the discovery rule in 15 pursuit of this claim.

16 129. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiffs sustained damages in a sum which exceeds the 17 jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would have jurisdiction of this matter, and in addition
18 thereto, Plaintiffs seek punitive and exemplary damages against Defendants in an amount to be 19 determined upon the trial of this matter.

20 130. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants for compensatory,
21 treble, and punitive damages, together with interest, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and all such other
22 relief as the Court deems proper.

23 COUNT XI

VIOLATIONS OF CALIFORNIA UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES AND CONSUMER PROTECTION LAW

(Against Defendants GSK and McKesson)

131. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

132. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq. and the Consumer Legal Remedies Act, Civ. Code § 1750 et seq. ("CLRA")

133. Defendants GSK and McKesson acted, used and employed deception, unfair and deceptive acts and practices, fraud, false promises, misrepresentations, concealment, suppression and omission of material facts with intent that physicians and medical providers rely upon such concealment, suppression and omission, and for the purpose of influencing and inducing physicians and medical providers to prescribe Avandia, for the treatment of diabetes to patients/consumers such as Plaintiffs, and causing such patients/consumers to purchase, acquire and use Avandia for the treatment of diabetes, as prescribed by their physicians and medical providers, in connection with the sale and advertisement of the drug Avandia, in violation of California law.

134. By reason of Defendants' acts, uses and employment of deception, unfair and deceptive acts and practices, fraud, false promises, misrepresentations, concealment, suppression and omission of material facts, reasonable patients/consumers acting reasonably, such as Plaintiffs, were caused to purchase and ingest Avandia, and thereby sustain serious personal injuries.

135. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiffs sustained damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would have jurisdiction of this matter, and in addition thereto, Plaintiffs seek punitive and exemplary damages against Defendants in an amount to be determined upon the trial of this matter.

COUNT XII
UNJUST ENRICHMENT

(Against Defendants GSK and McKesson)

136. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

137. To the detriment of Plaintiffs the Defendants GSK and McKesson have been, and continue to be, unjustly enriched as a result of the unlawful and/or wrongful collection of, inter alia, payments for Avandia.

138. Plaintiffs were injured by the cumulative and indivisible nature of the Defendants' conduct. The cumulative effect of the Defendants' conduct directed at physicians and consumers was to artificially create a demand for Avandia at an artificially inflated price. Each aspect of the Defendants' conduct combined to artificially create sales of Avandia.

139. The Defendants GSK and McKesson have unjustly benefited through the unlawful and/or wrongful collection of, inter alia, payments for Avandia and continue to so benefit to the detriment and at the expense of Plaintiffs.

140. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seek full disgorgement and restitution of the Defendants' enrichment, benefits, and ill-gotten gains acquired as a result of the unlawful and/or wrongful conduct alleged herein.

141. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants for compensatory, treble, and punitive damages, together with interest, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and all such other relief as the Court deems proper.

COUNT XIII
LOSS OF CONSORTIUM

142. Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the allegations previously set forth herein.

143. In cases where Plaintiffs were married at the time of their respective injuries, the spouses of such Plaintiffs were entitled to their comfort, care, affection, companionship, services, society, advice, guidance, counsel, and consortium.

1           151. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Defendants GSK and McKesson continued to
2 aggressively market the subject product to consumers, including the Plaintiffs herein, without 3 disclosing the aforesaid side effects when there were safer alternative methods of treatment for 4 diabetes.

5           152. The Defendants GSK and McKesson knew of the subject product's defective and 6 unreasonably dangerous nature, as set forth herein, but continued to design, develop, manufacture,
7 market, distribute and sell it so as to maximize sales and profits at the expense of the health and
8 safety of the public, including the Plaintiffs herein, in conscious and/or negligent disregard of the 9 foreseeable harm caused by Avandia.

10           153. Defendants GSK and McKesson intentionally concealed and/or recklessly failed to 11 disclose to the public, including the Plaintiffs herein, the potentially life threatening side effects of 12 Avandia in order to ensure continued and increased sales.

13           154. The Defendants' intentional and/or reckless failure to disclose information deprived
14 the Plaintiffs of necessary information to enable Plaintiffs to weight the true risks of using the 15 subject product against its benefits.

16           155. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' conscious and deliberate
17 disregard for the rights and safety of consumers such as the Plaintiffs, the Plaintiffs suffered severe
18 and permanent physical injuries. The Plaintiffs have endured substantial pain and suffering and 19 have undergone extensive medical and surgical procedures. Plaintiffs have incurred significant 20 expenses for medical care and treatment, and will continue to incur such expenses in the future.
21 The Plaintiffs have lost past earnings and have suffered a loss of earning capacity. The Plaintiffs
22 have suffered and will continue to suffer economic loss, and have otherwise been physically,

1 emotionally and economically injured. The Plaintiffs' injuries and damages are permanent and will
2 continue into the future.

3 156. The aforesaid conduct of Defendants GSK and McKesson was committed with 4 knowing, conscious, and deliberate disregard for the rights and safety of consumers, including the 5 Plaintiffs herein, thereby entitling the Plaintiffs to punitive damages in an amount appropriate to 6 punish the Defendants and deter them from similar conduct in the future.

7 157. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against Defendants for compensatory,
8 treble, and punitive damages, together with interest, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and all such other
9 relief as the Court deems proper.

10 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

11 WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs pray for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 12 (1) Judgment for Plaintiffs and against defendants;
- 13 (2) Damages in the form of compensatory damages in excess of the jurisdictional limits,
14 trebled on all applicable counts;
- 15 (3) Physical pain and suffering of the Plaintiffs
- 16 (4) Pre and post judgment interest at the lawful rate;
- 17 (5) Reasonably attorneys' fees and costs and expert fees;
- 18 (6) A trial by jury on all issues of the case;

21 Defendants' profits, and such other relief as provided by law;
- 22 (9) Exemplary and punitive damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits,

MDL No. 1871

TRANSFER ORDER

Before the entire Panel<sup>1</sup>: Plaintiff in the action pending in the Eastern District of Louisiana, has moved, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407, to centralize this litigation in the District of Puerto Rico or, alternatively, in the Eastern District of Louisiana. This litigation currently consists of moving plaintiff's action and one action pending in the District of Puerto Rico.<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff in the latter action supports centralization in the District of Puerto Rico. Plaintiffs in potential tag-along actions pending in the Central District of California, the Southern District of Florida, the District of New Jersey, the Southern District of New York, and the District of Puerto Rico have submitted responses in support of centralization. These plaintiffs suggest a variety of fora for transferee district, including the Southern District of Florida (favored by plaintiffs in the action pending in that district), the District of New Jersey (favored by plaintiff in the action pending in that district, as well as plaintiff in the Central District of California action), the Southern District of New York (favored by plaintiffs in eight actions pending in that district), and the District of Puerto Rico (favored by plaintiffs in the action pending in that district). Responding defendant SmithKlineBeecham Corp. d/b/a GlaxoSmithKline (GSK) initially opposed the Section 1407 motion, but now supports centralization in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Judge Heyburn took no part in the disposition of this matter.

<sup>1</sup> The Panel has been notified of 28 additional related actions pending in the Western District of Arkansas, the Central District of California (two actions), the Southern District of Florida (two actions), the Southern District of Illinois, the Southern District of Indiana, the Eastern District of Louisiana, the District of New Jersey, the Eastern District of New York, the Southern District of New York (ten actions), the Northern District of Ohio, the Eastern District of Oklahoma, the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the District of Puerto Rico, the Eastern District of Tennessee, the Western District of Tennessee, and the Eastern District of Texas (two actions). These actions and any other related actions will be treated as potential tag-along actions. See Rules 7.4 and 7.5, R.P.J.P.M.L., 199 F.R.D. 425, 435-36 (2001).

IMAGED OCT 16 2007

On the basis of the papers filed and hearing session held, we find that these actions involve common questions of fact, and that centralization under Section 1407 in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania will serve the convenience of the parties and witnesses and promote the just and efficient conduct of the litigation. Both actions arise from allegations that certain diabetes drugs manufactured by GSK – Avandia and/or two sister drugs containing Avandia (Avandamet and Avandaryl) – cause an increased risk of heart attack and other physical injury, and that GSK failed to provide adequate warnings concerning that risk. Centralization under Section 1407 will eliminate duplicative discovery, avoid inconsistent pretrial rulings, and conserve the resources of the parties, their counsel and the judiciary.

We are also persuaded that the Eastern District of Pennsylvania is an appropriate transferee district for pretrial proceedings in this litigation. GSK's principal place of business is located in that district, and thus many witnesses and documents relevant to the litigation are likely to be found there. In addition, one of the potential tag-along actions was commenced in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407, the two actions are transferred to the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and, with the consent of that court, assigned to the Honorable Cynthia M. Rufe for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings.
